Brentwood Travel Baseball ("BTB") is a not for profit youth baseball organization completely run by volunteers. In keeping with the spirit in which this organization was founded, BTB requires that all participants, including players, coaches, parents, spectators and officials, behave toward others with courtesy and respect and, assist us by providing a safe, encouraging and positive atmosphere during practice, games and BTB sponsored events. As such, BTB has a code of conduct policy. This policy is in effect for all BTB events and activities. Any player, coach, parent, spectator or official violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action as determined by BTB, including: probation, suspension, fine, forfeiture of registration and/or other fees, and permanent expulsion from BTB. Decisions of BTB are final and no protests will be entertained.

I, the undersigned acknowledge that I have read and understand the policies and procedures noted above, understand the expectations, the penalties listed, and accept responsibility for all immediate family members and will abide by the all to the best of my ability. The player and his family do hereby acknowledge that the sports activity the applicant desires to participate in may possibly subject the applicant to the risk of injury and therefore the applicant and his family hereby release the Brentwood Travel Baseball, its agents, officials, coaches and staff from any liability whatsoever.
